WHAT JACKSON NEEDS

Is Substantial Sidewalks and Attractive Streets

Again we are constrained to speak of the public improvements in Jackson, the matter of clearing away the debris from the streets, the matter of improving the sidewalks and the general improvement of the appearance of the town. We have heretofore appealed to the people of Jackson, and this appeal has been met with something of response, and the people have appeared to show an interest in the welfare and upbuilding of the town, but it yet remains for the greater awakening to come and enliven the people and infuse public spirit into the property holders and cause them to stir from the lethargy that has so long lulled them into inaction. It remains for a united effort on the part of our citizens and concerted plans and movements to lift Jackson from its present position and place it in the list of the greater cities of our Commonwealth.

If we expect to grow, and keep pace with the development of Eastern Kentucky, it is imperative that we employ means to bring conveniences to Jackson and make it an attractive city, suitable for any person or persons desiring to invest in our fields, and make it suitable and desirable for homes and residences, instead of having it a place of temporary abode. This must be done if we expect to grow, and we must grow if we expect to live. It may be said that Jackson is now at its crisis, that it has now reached the crucial point where it is either to take its place among the foremost cities of our State in mining, manufacturing and shipping facilities, or sink into insignificance from which it never could arise. The development of Eastern Kentucky, that portion of the Commonwealth which Jackson can be made the gateway, is upon us, and some city such as springs up in the midst of developments; some city such as Pittsburg, or Chattanooga, Wheeling or other cities that grow with the development of sections is bound to be planted and grow in this vast and boundless undeveloped territory.

What is the matter with Jackson? Why not make it a city among the tops—a city that can be bid? Why not adorn it with attractive streets and thoroughfares, attractive buildings and conveniences until capital and investment would come our way? For clothing of all kinds go to Jones. He can save you money.

BOAT GOES OVER DAM
And Roy Hall Was Almost Drowned.

Roy Hall, the fifteen-year-old son of O. C. Hall, came very near being drowned last Saturday morning by being washed over the dam in the river at the foot of Court street. He had been drifting in a small boat above the dam when an unexpected current bore him over. He was caught in the boils and remained there until he was unconscious when the undercurrent bore him out. He was seen by some women who were near the river, and their screams soon brought a crowd of men to the scene, fortunately in time to rescue the boy.

Seriously Ill.
Mrs. S. H. Hurst, wife of County Clerk S. H. Hurst, is seriously ill at her home at Penfrees. She has been suffering for several weeks with serious complications, and it was only recently that her condition alarmed her friends and physicians of the family. Her son, Taylor Hurst, who has been attending a medical college in Louisville, and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Mason, of Linville, Ala., have been summoned to her bedside.

CLOSING EXERCISES

At the Institute—Entertainment by Pupils.

The closing exercises of the Lees Collegiate Institute will be held in the college chapel beginning Sunday, May 12, and ending with the commencement proper on the following Tuesday evening. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. H. L. Cockerham, of Troy, Ky., a former pupil of this institution. The various churches of the town will join with the school in this Sabbath service, as has heretofore been the custom. "Special song" service has been arranged by the music department of the college, assisted by the choirs from the various churches, and it promises to be an interesting and imposing service.

SKETCHES FROM "MOTHER GOOSE"

On Saturday evening, May 11, the children of the school will give their entertainment, "Sketches From Mother Goose," a program in which almost all the small children of the school will participate. It promises to be an interesting program, and all the patrons and friends of the school should attend the exercises, as a means both of being personally benefited by the interesting program and of encouraging the little folk in rendering the program. It is to be hoped that the chapel will be filled on this evening.

PUPILS' RECITAL

On Monday evening will be given the Pupils' Recital, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. An attractive program has been arranged, which will be rendered by the music pupils of the school.

COMMENCEMENT

On Tuesday evening, May 14, at 7:30 o'clock, the commencement proper will be held in the college chapel. Besides addresses and essays by the graduates a musical program will be rendered, also an address to the graduates by Rev. Cockerham. The graduates are Misses May Sewell and Elizabeth Hargis and Benjamin Sewell. Miss Sewell will read an essay entitled, "Kentucky," while Miss Hargis has the subject, "Why Stand Ye Idle?" Mr. Sewell will deliver an oration on "Robert E. Lee, The Typical American Gentleman." With the exercises on Tuesday evening the school closes the present term.

EXHIBITION AND INSPECTION

Those who are interested in the products of the Domestic Science Department of the school are invited to come to the college building Saturday afternoon, May 11, when the many products of this department will be on exhibition in the third story of the building. This exhibition will be well worth the time for their inspection, and everybody is invited to come.

J. HARLAN MAY

Dies of Peculiar Disease After a Short Illness.

J. Harlan May, of Salyersville, died last Saturday morning at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, from excessive bleeding. He was taken to the hospital two weeks ago. His death was caused by excessive bleeding from all over the surface of his body. His blood refused to coagulate, being as thin as water, and ran from the surface of his body incessantly. He bled for nine days before he was taken to the hospital in Lexington, and the hemorrhages continued until his death. Mr. May, before his illness was of very large frame, and a son of ex-Judge Wm. May, of Magoffin county, and a brother-in-law of Capt. Jeff Prather, of Salyersville. The members of his family who survive him are his wife, Mrs. Manie May, and two daughters, Misses Eva and Tressa May. His body was taken to Salyersville for burial.

The Desperado Was Shot In Magoffin County.

A clipping from the Cincinnati Engineer from Ashland, dated April 27, says:

A long distance message received here tonight from Salversville stated that in an engagement on Tick Lick creek, in Magoffin county, this morning, between a Sheriff's posse and Henry Montgomery, a life-time prisoner, who escaped from the Paintsville jail a few weeks ago, two of the posse had been killed and Montgomery shot so full of holes that he was barely able to crawl into a cave, where he was found later on, dead, with 17 bullet wounds in his body. The posse had chased Montgomery for almost fifteen miles, coming up with him on a rocky dell on Tick Lick creek.

MERE DIVERSION.

Many a man who thinks he is getting into a peach orchard really finds his way into a lemon grove.

Now that they are manufacturing beefsteak out of cottonseed, it will no longer be necessary to manufacture a pound of it out of a dollar bill.

A woman writer advises man to study his sweetheart at the seashore before he marries her. What is the use when the same result can be had by turning a mouse loose in the parlor?

The lightning bug is brilliant, but he hasn't any mind, he meanders through the darkness with his headlight on behind. Likewise the merchant, whom no one can advise, he declares there's nothing to do when asked to advertise.

We feel sorry for the man who doesn't read his home paper. He is no better than a man without a country. He is like a homeless cow, that has no regular pasture, but grazes promiscuously on vacant lots around Jackson. No matter what other papers he may read, the well posted citizen always insists on having his home paper.

A reader of a monthly magazine answered an advertisement and sent 50 cents for a potato bug eradicator. The answer came back with two small blocks of wood, labeled A and B. "Proceed to the potato patch and having caught your potato bug place the bug on block A. Then tap him roughly on the head with block B. Continue until all the bugs are eradicated."

You can tell a successful farmer by looking at his wife's fruit in the closet. You can tell a slovenly woman by looking at her hair; you can tell a dry goods box statesman by the patches on his pantaloons. But the easiest thing of all, you can tell an enterprising merchant by a glance at The News. This is not divine revelation, but business and gospel truth.

Say girls, if your best fellow or any other fellow, overstates his time when enlisting on you, spring this on him and if he don't "take a tumble" he is too stupid to ever call on you again. Here it is—take any number between one and nine, add one, multiply by nine, cross out left hand figure, add fourteen, add the number you started with and then watch the young man's countenance.

There is no end of fun in mind-making your own business and it makes people like you better. It is better to have others stuck on you than to be stuck on yourself. Don't knock; don't get stubborn; don't roast—just jolly. Everybody likes to be jolled. Be a good fellow—it's dead easy. Help yourself along; push your friends with you. No man ever helped himself by knocking other people. You can't climb the ladder of fame by stepping on other people's corns—and they are their corns, not yours—and they are tender. Help everybody; get hold with both hands when there is a chance to help Jackson. Bury your hatchet; drop your tomahawk; hide your little hammer. Be a booster.

Lost.

One plain gold ring with initials J R B on inside. Reward will be paid for the return of the ring to J. R. BLANK.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last publication:
Wick Deaton and Miss Susan Hadden, both of Lost Creek.
Magoffin Campbell and Miss Jane Mullins, both of Quickland.

Britton Allowed Bail.

Wm. Britton, whose trial resulted in a hung jury at Lexington, was allowed bail in the sum of $7,500. A warrant was issued for him from this court on an indictment returned against him for the murder of Dr. Cox, but he is still in custody at Lexington as he had not yet executed bond there.

Jamestown Exposition Opened by President Roosevelt With Splendid Land and Water Ceremonies—Show Not Ready For Public Before May 15—Moyer-Haywood Defenders Angry Over President's Reply—Watterson Prophecies a New Party—Douma Exposes Prison Atrocities.

POLITICAL

Roosevelt Defies Critics.

With the object of forestalling further interrogation by representatives of labor unions and other bodies connected with the Moyer-Haywood defense movement, President Roosevelt made public a letter which he had written in defense of his course in speaking of Messrs. Debs, Moyer and Haywood, along with E. H. Harriman, the capitalist, as "undesirable citizens," this reference having occurred in his recently published letter to Congressman Sherman in the Harriman controversy. The president's letter of defense was in answer to a protest from the Cook county Moyer-Haywood conference of Chicago, a copy of which had been forwarded by its chairman, H. H. Jaxon.

The president says that he agrees with the protesting body that it is improper to try to influence the course of justice, and on this account he regrets the action of such organizations in announcing in advance that the verdict of the Moyer-Haywood trial shall be acquittal. He thinks, however, that it is absurd to suppose that because a man is on trial for a given offense he is therefore "to be free from all criticism upon his general conduct and manner of life." He adds that it is as foolish to say that his remark was designed to influence the suits brought against Harriman. He points out that "he neither expressed nor indicated any opinion as to whether Messrs. Moyer and Haywood were guilty of the murder of Governor Steiwer," but explains that, whatever the outcome of the trial on the one hand or the suits on the other, nothing could affect his judgment as to the undesirability of the type of citizenship of all he mentions. He regards Moyer and Haywood as "men who have done to the nation what they have done," and says that "he will uphold justice whether the man accused has behind him corporate wealth or the most influential labor organizations."

Howard's Co. of speculative manufacturers of labor and unionism have done to discredit honest capitalists and fair dealing business men." The president concludes by saying that he, too, wants a square deal for Moyer and Haywood, and that "he will uphold justice whether the man accused has behind him corporate wealth or the most influential labor organizations."

Debs Anathematizes Roosevelt. The last issue of the Socialist paper, the Appeal to Reason, devotes its entire front page to a frenzied attack upon "Roosevelt and His Hogsmeat," by Eugene V. Debs, who besides having his name linked with those of the accused miners' officials by the president as "undesirable citizens" has been himself active in the Moyer-Haywood defense work. Debs calls the president a hypocrite and says he disgraced his high office when he "stepped out of the White House and called Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone murderers."

One Rhode Island Senator. The general assembly of Rhode Island has adjourned after a final fruitless effort to elect a United States senator to succeed Wetmore.

Watterson Sees New Party. Upon his arrival at New York from Europe, Editor Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal said he thought the time was ripe for the establishment of a new party. He finds his party now split into three factions in the north and thinks it may be "that the dissident elements of our present Democracy are the dawning of a new party based on socialist theories." As it stands at present the Democracy can win next time "only in case there is a change in the leadership, in the platform, in the platform, in the platform."

Ohio Patronage For Taft. With the report at Washington that the appointment of an internal revenue collector at Toledo was to be placed at the disposal of Taft and Burton, this was regarded as due notice that Senators Foraker and Dick might expect no further recognition from the administration. Secretary Taft upon his return from the West Indies refused to have anything to say about this or any other political subject.

Spanish Government Wins. In the recent Spanish elections for members of the new cortes the government party obtained a large majority. The Republicans, however, won a number of seats, notably in Valencia, where not a single monarchist was successful. It is estimated that the final constitution of the chamber of deputies will be approximately 275 Conservatives, 65 Liberals, 52 Republicans and Catalan Regionalists, 13 Carlists and 10 Clericals and Independents. A striking number of young men are among the Conservatives elected. The result of the election gives Premier Maura immense power.

Peace In Central America. The state department at Washington has been informed of the successful conclusion of peace negotiations between the recently warring Central American republics. A provisional government of Honduras has been announced to administer the affairs of the country pending a presidential and congressional election, which will probably be held in about sixty days.

When your back aches it is almost invariably an indication that something is wrong with your kidneys. Weak, diseased kidneys frequently cause a breakdown of the entire system. Dr. Williams' Kidney and Bladder Pills afford prompt relief for weak kidneys, backache, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Chicago Bankers Sentenced. Officials of the Bank of America, which had a brief existence at Chicago in 1905, have been found guilty of fraud and check kiting, and a sentence of $1,000 fine and two years' imprisonment is imposed on Judge Abner Smith, president, and G. F. Sorrow, vice president.

Millions For German Forts. The war budget in the German Reichstag includes $1,250,000 for the rebuilding of fortresses, and the minister of war announces his purpose to re-arm the field artillery, the foot artillery and the infantry as rapidly as possible.

Truth of Russian Prison Horrors. The committee appointed by the Russian government to investigate the alleged torturing of political prisoners at Alga and other prisons submitted its report. This confirms officially the worst stories that have been told, and its statements are admitted to be true by the ministers of the interior and justice. At Alga a committee was created to direct tortures, and the governor put many prisoners who were merely suspects to death without trial. Among the tortures practiced were such as tearing out the finger nails and toe nails and hair, throwing with iron rubber sticks and then rubbing salt in the wounds. An eight-year-old child was dogged to death because he could not tell the whereabouts of his father. Women were insulted and outraged most inhumanly. The official publication of these facts has caused a new wave of popular indignation and resentment against the government to sweep over the country.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of fatal disease if taken in time. Jackson Drug Co.

Improving Their Towns. There is a decided awakening noticeable of late among the better class of Southern California, says the Los Angeles Times. A most unusual number here planning and planning school and library grounds, public parks, streets, etc. Every section has been so generally prosperous during the past year that all feel like making their city, town or community reflect it by an improved appearance. There are always opportunities in plenty on which residents may expend time and money, and two of the most important places to begin are the school grounds and the streets. Every corner of population has these two problems before it at all times. See that a sanitary, well-planned, cooperative movement is begun to ward the uniform planting of trees, shrubs and flowers, properly planted. Have the school grounds planned by some competent authority. Put in the necessary drives and walks of gravel or cement. Plant according to the plan, and your labors will be rewarded just along through your own satisfaction, but by thanks of generations yet unborn, for such improvements gain in value as the years roll by. Now is the golden time of all the year. All the really live communities are already active.

For a call or a cough take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is BETTER than any other cough remedy, because its laxative principle assures a healthy, vigorous action of the bowels and at the same time it heals irritation of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes and allays inflammation of the mucous membrane. Contains Honey and Tar, pleasant to take. Children like it. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Civic Clubs in School. The educational committee of the Lebanon (Pa.) Women's club has started a movement to organize all the school children into civic societies. When organized the societies will be merged into a league and then made auxiliary to the state league, says the Philadelphia Press. The school directors approve of the movement and have granted a part of the last Friday in each month for meetings of the societies. At these meetings the little folks will be addressed on good citizenship and other civic subjects by lecturers provided by the Women's club. Mrs. I. L. Hickey, Mrs. C. H. Hinch, Mrs. H. J. Hayden, Miss Anna Matthews, Mrs. Harry Smith and others have already organized several societies in as many school buildings. The children are deeply interested, as each member will wear a badge, and those elected to office will wear special badges.

Mrs. S. Joyce, 180 Sullivan St., Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." Jackson Drug Co.

The School Garden Idea. The school garden idea is steadily growing, and in many of the large cities and towns the work has succeeded beyond the expectations of even the most sanguine enthusiasts, says the Home Magazine. In 1905, 350,985 one cent packages of seed were sold in Cleveland to children living in all parts of the city, including those districts where beauty is almost unknown and yards and vacant lots are most unattractive, and as a result running vines soon began to cover ugly fences and outhouses, common flowers as well as shrubs beautified the yards, and dotted plants decorated porches and balconies. In one small city the work began with stereotypical lectures, to which the children sold tickets. The proceeds were spent for flower seeds, plants and lily bulbs, which were given to the children with the understanding that the flower show would be in the fall. The entire town became interested in flower culture, and the 5,000 seed beds became one of the sights to show strangers, while the exhibits enlisted the interest and admiration of the surrounding country.

A Little Kodol taken occasionally, especially after eating, will relieve sour stomach, belching and heartburn. J. B. Jones, Newport, Tenn., writes: "I am sure three one dollar bottles of your Kodol positively cured me of dyspepsia, and I can recommend it, as that was three years ago and I haven't been bothered since with it." Kodol is guaranteed to give relief. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Woman to Build Town Hall. At Mouravia, Ind., a little town of probably 500 inhabitants in the north-west corner of Morgan county, is a little band of women associated in an organization known as the Commercial club. This town is like many other Indiana towns of its size—it has no place suitable for public gatherings aside from the churches and school-houses, and these energetic women have attempted to remedy this condition, says the Indianapolis News. With that purpose in view they are striving by every honorable method to raise money with which to build a town hall. The name Commercial club is usually applied to a body of men organized for the purpose of obtaining factories and other public institutions for their cities, and at first blush it might seem inappropriate when applied to a club of women. Not a man is permitted to join.

More News from the New England States. If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin S. Simpson, of Waltham, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally took Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says, was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to "sour kidney" trouble. Jackson Drug Co.

LEGAL-CRIMINAL

Senator Borah Indicted. Although extraordinary efforts appear to have been made to keep from the public the fact, it became known that United States Senator Borah had been indicted for violation of the laws governing the acquisition of public lands, together with President Barber of the Barber Lumber company of Wisconsin and its manager, J. G. Chapman, who was already in jail for contempt because he refused to produce the company's records. Senator Borah had been counsel for this company. Friends of the senator had asked for delay on account of his connection with the approaching Moyer-Haywood trial, he being employed as special counsel for the prosecution. It was also reported that the late ex-governor of Vermont had been interested in these land operations. On the 24th inst., the government brought suit to recover 40,000 acres, valued at $1,000,000, which had been patented to the lumber company.

Benedict Gimbal's Death. Following his arrest at New York for alleged assault upon a boy and for attempted bribery of the police, Benedict Gimbal, member of the wealthy firm of Gimbal Bros. of Philadelphia, and his throat and wrists while staying in a Hoboken hotel under an assumed name. He was found mid taken to a hospital, where he seemed to have a chance of recovery, but later died. The members of his family who were summoned said his mind had been wrong for several months.

When your food has not been properly digested the entire system is impaired in the same proportion. Your stomach needs help. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia not only digests but you eat, it tones the stomach and adds strength to the whole body. Takes rich, pure blood. Kodol conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Big Trust Company Labeled. Shortly after Loan Clerk W. O. Douglas of the Trust Company of America at New York had left the office April 20 it was discovered that a number of railroad bonds held by the company as collateral were missing. I immediately telegraphed President Oakley Thorne, organized the employees into a detective staff to guard every railroad exit from the city, besides employing private detectives. Within two or three days the bonds were located, with his wife, under assumed names in a hotel and arrested. He made a partial confession, mentioning certain persons with whom he had placed securities, and in a short time the company was able to reclaim many of the missing papers at a sacrifice of $140,000 paid to those who had received them innocently. Later Oliver M. Bennett, Wall street broker, was arrested on the charge of having received a part of the stolen bonds, as some of them had been found under the mattress of his bed at a hotel. It came out that Douglas, Bennett and Rourdon was the name of a supposed partnership which had been depositing securities in large amounts with brokers to cover margins on stock speculations. It is intimated that the buying of the trust company had been going on for a long time, and that the losses will run much higher than the figure officially acknowledged.

A Significant Prayer. "May the Lord help you make Lincoln's America Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and ended it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, ulcers and wounds. 26c at Jackson Drug Co.

Administration Aids Hughes. The authoritative announcement has been made at the White House that the president desires to use all his influence to strengthen the administration of Governor Hughes in New York, especially in forcing through reform legislation at Albany. Following a call on the president, Henry W. Taft, brother of the secretary of war, made this fact clear, and the inference drawn was that out of the party harmony in New York a delegation for Taft would be chosen. Some of the friends of Hughes now say, however, that the governor is making no political alliances with any one which would take him out of the running for the presidential nomination.

Oklahoma Constitution Signed. President Murray of the Oklahoma constitutional convention signed the new fundamental law at Guthrie April 13, thus closing the work of the convention. Most of the Republicans refused to sign the document, having voted against it on the final ballot.

Union's Reply to Roosevelt. Labor unions throughout the country which have joined in the Moyer-Haywood defense movement have promptly replied to President Roosevelt's letter of justification addressed to the Cook county conference. In many places the unions have held indignation meetings and issued statements expressing their displeasure. A plan is on foot in the west to appoint a day for suspension of work in various cities so as to make a concerted demonstration and protest against the words of the president, also to gather funds for a stronger defense of the accused miners. The New York conference in their statement say that the president "adds insult to an injury already done." The committee appointed to go to Washington decided that it would be useless to make the trip.

Here's to your health and happiness—Dr. Williams' Little Early Riser—famous little pills. No-13, sick headache may come on any time; the cure is an Early Riser. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Troops Overrun Strikers. The strike situation in Paris grew more acute, many of the hotel waiters having joined the ranks of the striking bakers and other food producing workmen. While no serious disturbances had occurred, it was found necessary to use the troops to disperse the mobs which gathered from time to time.

Disturbed the Congregation. The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Kidney and Tar Jackson Drug Co.

Foreign Support Saves Douma. Reports from St. Petersburg indicate that the united action of the court and government would have caused the dissolution of the douma ere this but for the support afforded by foreign influence, which strongly repels such a reactionary movement. Petitions and appeals from provincial authorities are being poured in on the czar to prevent the action from continuing its examination of the internal administration, in the course of which they have uncovered many shocking atrocities. As between these provincial governors and the revolutionary douma it is believed that the court will ultimately side with the former.

Appendicitis. It is in a large measure to about 10% of the well, by employing drastic purgatives. To avoid all danger, use only Dr. King's New Life Pills, the safe, gentle, cleanser and invigorator. Guaranteed to cure headache, biliousness, malaria and jaundice, at Jackson Drug Co. 25c.

Chinese Envoy Recalled. Washington confirms the dispatches from Peking to the effect that the Chinese minister to the United States, Sir Cheintung Liang Cheung, is to return to Peking, where he will probably assume the office of president of the board of foreign affairs and controller general of maritime customs. Liang Tzu Yen, a graduate of Yale college, is mentioned as his probable successor at Washington.

Douglas of the Trust Company of America at New York had left the office April 20 it was discovered that a number of railroad bonds held by the company as collateral were missing. I immediately telegraphed President Oakley Thorne, organized the employees into a detective staff to guard every railroad exit from the city, besides employing private detectives. Within two or three days the bonds were located, with his wife, under assumed names in a hotel and arrested. He made a partial confession, mentioning certain persons with whom he had placed securities, and in a short time the company was able to reclaim many of the missing papers at a sacrifice of $140,000 paid to those who had received them innocently. Later Oliver M. Bennett, Wall street broker, was arrested on the charge of having received a part of the stolen bonds, as some of them had been found under the mattress of his bed at a hotel. It came out that Douglas, Bennett and Rourdon was the name of a supposed partnership which had been depositing securities in large amounts with brokers to cover margins on stock speculations. It is intimated that the buying of the trust company had been going on for a long time, and that the losses will run much higher than the figure officially acknowledged.

Administration Aids Hughes. The authoritative announcement has been made at the White House that the president desires to use all his influence to strengthen the administration of Governor Hughes in New York, especially in forcing through reform legislation at Albany. Following a call on the president, Henry W. Taft, brother of the secretary of war, made this fact clear, and the inference drawn was that out of the party harmony in New York a delegation for Taft would be chosen. Some of the friends of Hughes now say, however, that the governor is making no political alliances with any one which would take him out of the running for the presidential nomination.

Oklahoma Constitution Signed. President Murray of the Oklahoma constitutional convention signed the new fundamental law at Guthrie April 13, thus closing the work of the convention. Most of the Republicans refused to sign the document, having voted against it on the final ballot.

Union's Reply to Roosevelt. Labor unions throughout the country which have joined in the Moyer-Haywood defense movement have promptly replied to President Roosevelt's letter of justification addressed to the Cook county conference. In many places the unions have held indignation meetings and issued statements expressing their displeasure. A plan is on foot in the west to appoint a day for suspension of work in various cities so as to make a concerted demonstration and protest against the words of the president, also to gather funds for a stronger defense of the accused miners. The New York conference in their statement say that the president "adds insult to an injury already done." The committee appointed to go to Washington decided that it would be useless to make the trip.

Foreign Support Saves Douma. Reports from St. Petersburg indicate that the united action of the court and government would have caused the dissolution of the douma ere this but for the support afforded by foreign influence, which strongly repels such a reactionary movement. Petitions and appeals from provincial authorities are being poured in on the czar to prevent the action from continuing its examination of the internal administration, in the course of which they have uncovered many shocking atrocities. As between these provincial governors and the revolutionary douma it is believed that the court will ultimately side with the former.

Spanish Government Wins. In the recent Spanish elections for members of the new cortes the government party obtained a large majority. The Republicans, however, won a number of seats, notably in Valencia, where not a single monarchist was successful. It is estimated that the final constitution of the chamber of deputies will be approximately 275 Conservatives, 65 Liberals, 52 Republicans and Catalan Regionalists, 13 Carlists and 10 Clericals and Independents. A striking number of young men are among the Conservatives elected. The result of the election gives Premier Maura immense power.

Millions For German Forts. The war budget in the German Reichstag includes $1,250,000 for the rebuilding of fortresses, and the minister of war announces his purpose to re-arm the field artillery, the foot artillery and the infantry as rapidly as possible.

Truth of Russian Prison Horrors. The committee appointed by the Russian government to investigate the alleged torturing of political prisoners at Alga and other prisons submitted its report. This confirms officially the worst stories that have been told, and its statements are admitted to be true by the ministers of the interior and justice. At Alga a committee was created to direct tortures, and the governor put many prisoners who were merely suspects to death without trial. Among the tortures practiced were such as tearing out the finger nails and toe nails and hair, throwing with iron rubber sticks and then rubbing salt in the wounds. An eight-year-old child was dogged to death because he could not tell the whereabouts of his father. Women were insulted and outraged most inhumanly. The official publication of these facts has caused a new wave of popular indignation and resentment against the government to sweep over the country.

When organized the societies will be merged into a league and then made auxiliary to the state league, says the Philadelphia Press. The school directors approve of the movement and have granted a part of the last Friday in each month for meetings of the societies. At these meetings the little folks will be addressed on good citizenship and other civic subjects by lecturers provided by the Women's club. Mrs. I. L. Hickey, Mrs. C. H. Hinch, Mrs. H. J. Hayden, Miss Anna Matthews, Mrs. Harry Smith and others have already organized several societies in as many school buildings. The children are deeply interested, as each member will wear a badge, and those elected to office will wear special badges.

The School Garden Idea. The school garden idea is steadily growing, and in many of the large cities and towns the work has succeeded beyond the expectations of even the most sanguine enthusiasts, says the Home Magazine. In 1905, 350,985 one cent packages of seed were sold in Cleveland to children living in all parts of the city, including those districts where beauty is almost unknown and yards and vacant lots are most unattractive, and as a result running vines soon began to cover ugly fences and outhouses, common flowers as well as shrubs beautified the yards, and dotted plants decorated porches and balconies. In one small city the work began with stereotypical lectures, to which the children sold tickets. The proceeds were spent for flower seeds, plants and lily bulbs, which were given to the children with the understanding that the flower show would be in the fall. The entire town became interested in flower culture, and the 5,000 seed beds became one of the sights to show strangers, while the exhibits enlisted the interest and admiration of the surrounding country.

Woman to Build Town Hall. At Mouravia, Ind., a little town of probably 500 inhabitants in the north-west corner of Morgan county, is a little band of women associated in an organization known as the Commercial club. This town is like many other Indiana towns of its size—it has no place suitable for public gatherings aside from the churches and school-houses, and these energetic women have attempted to remedy this condition, says the Indianapolis News. With that purpose in view they are striving by every honorable method to raise money with which to build a town hall. The name Commercial club is usually applied to a body of men organized for the purpose of obtaining factories and other public institutions for their cities, and at first blush it might seem inappropriate when applied to a club of women. Not a man is permitted to join.
